This is the Second of the Series of Sectional Catalogues. It consists of an Alphabetical Catalogue of the Books in the Irish Section, which now numbers over 5000 volumes.

The Irish Section contains many rare and valuable books relating to the history and topography of Ireland. It also possesses an interesting and valuable collection of Maps of Ireland and the Provinces, especially of the 16th and 17th Centuries. It is particularly rich in items of local interest and those relating to Ulster generally. Of late years it has been the policy of the Board of Governors to add to this Section in as liberal manner as possible. In addition it has been further enriched from time to time by the generous donations of friends of the Library. And, perhaps, the most important gift was that received from the late R. R. Belshaw of Dublin, who, in the year 1914, bequeathed to the Library, his entire collection of books and pamphlets, some 5185 in number, of which about 600 were books and pamphlets relating to Ireland, many of the latter being of extreme value, especially to Students of the Commonwealth and Restoration Periods.

As in the first of the Series (the Catalogue of the Foreign Section), the alphabetical or dictionary form of catalogue has been adopted, the books being arranged under author, subject or subjects, and, when considered necessary, under the first or chief word of the title. Pseudonyms of authors are printed in Italic type and cross references are given to or from their real names. Most information will generally be found under the author's name and, where a title of a book is not self explanatory, words are sometimes added enclosed in brackets (); or, an annotation is given in small type. A dash (—) at the beginning of a line indicates that the preceding heading is repeated. When the title of a book is followed by two numbers divided by a semi-colon (;), it shows that there are two copies of the work in the Library, when connected by a hyphen (-), it denotes that the work is in more than one volume, the numbers given representing the first and last volumes. Dates of publication are given when shown on the title-page, those enclosed in square brackets [] are probable dates of publication, those marked n.d. (no date) are not known. To save space a few contractions have been used, such as B.C.-Belshaw Collection; Soc.-Society; Pubs.-Publications; etc., but in the majority of cases these being self-evident it has not been thought necessary to give a complete list of them here.

This Catalogue has been compiled by our Chief Librarian (Mr. F. J. P. Burgoyne) and he has been fortunate enough to obtain the assistance of a number of gentlemen who undertook to read through the proof sheets, and who, by their valued suggestions, rendered most important service. To Dr. J. S. Crone, the Editor of the "Irish Book Lover," we are particularly indebted for giving so freely from his vast store of bibliographical knowledge; to Mr. A. A. Campbell, Mr. J. W. Kernohan, M.A., the Rev. David Stewart, B.A., and the Rev. J. A. Kelly for their many valuable comments, especially in connection with the books and pamphlets relating to the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; to Mr. R. M. Young, M.A., M.R.I.A., for his work relating to the Sections on Belfast and Ulster; to Mr. David Kennedy for his help in connection with the works of the Ulster poets; and to Mr. Michael Andrews for revising the list of Atlases and Maps. To these and to others who helped in various ways we extend our warmest thanks.

President of the Board of Governors.
